Funded Projects – Awarded via Panel Consensus in January 2020

PROJECT	ORGANISATION	AREA	PRIORITY	AWARD
Participants from mixed communities will co-produce and evaluate an innovative Mixed Learning Programme that will reduce social isolation, support people into work and build community cohesion in the Bolton Woods area of Bradford. They intend to bring together a diverse range of people who, despite their differences, face many of the same barriers to securing work and/or socialising with others. Adults with learning disabilities will work together with other groups in the community (single parents, members of local BAME communities, unemployed people, students and retired people) to co-produce a pilot programme of workshops and events that will develop skills, increase employment opportunities and strengthen community connections. The project will deliver education for life through ESOL classes. Alongside practical workshops like DIY which will include: putting up shelves, changing a light bulb, wiring a plug as well as basic plumbing, assembling flat packed furniture and re-upholstering second hand furniture. Parallel to DIY there will be classes in car maintenance and gardening. In car maintenance women will learn how to change a tyre, check the air pressure in their tyres, and oil in the engine. In the gardening classes the women will learn how to grown vegetables in their back yards despite limitation of space and resources, how to cultivate seeds and how to achieve a low carbon footprint. There will be one more stream, which will teach women how to set up a small business where they will learn how to do their own tax, keep accounts, and understand customer service. The project has emerged through a network of community partners, who work closely on the ground as members of 'Welcome to Great Horton Steering Group' The project will work within three broad areas of need: 1. Environmental issues, including waste, fly-tipping and a lack of tidy communal areas; 2. Fears of anti-social behaviour, 'gangs' and safety and 3. Low levels of social mixing between groups of different ethnic/cultural background.
Mary Magdalene will deliver a number of sessions to raise awareness of hate crime in small sessions to young people to help them understand the consequences of this on other people, seek alternative ways of thinking about the problem and solution, provide a range of diversionary and positive activities and work with young people developing a range of videos and rap to share online on social media.	Mary Magdalene CiC	Bradford West	Feeling Safe  Young people	£9,900
The Living Well in Bradford project will provide bespoke support to Refugee and Asylum Seekers (RAS) adults resident in Bradford to enable them to be better integrated; strengthen their wider community connections and community involvement; improve their health and wellbeing and progress economically and socially. The project will deliver two innovative Living Well in Bradford programmes to 30 RAS participants, raising their aspirations, developing a sense of belonging and wellbeing and supporting integration.	Bevan Healthcare CiC	Bradford East	Getting On  New and emerging communities	£12,810
We intend to bring young people from different communities together to undertake thematic workshops and recreational / social activities to better understand each others sense of 'identity/ belonging', cultural and religious values and beliefs to dispel myths and prejudice, engender mutual respect and tolerance and enable them to realise we have more in common which unites us than the differences that separate us. The activities we will deliver are 'bitesize' thematic workshops, each followed by a recreational / social activity or outing so that the learning gained from the workshops is embedded, new relationships are formed and friendships are developed.	Bangladeshi Youth Organisation	Bradford West but delivery is district wide.
