

Bradford Council invites you to be part of: Race Equality Week 2022

Monday 7-13 February 2022

Monday 7th February:

11- 12.30am: City of Sanctuary – Bradford home to refugees

Their stories of survival, settlement friendship life and success. We will be joined by guest speakers from BIASAN, the Council and Bradford for Everyone

Click here to join the City of Sanctuary meeting

Tuesday 8th February:

12- 1pm: Launch of the Race Equality Staff Network. (council staff only) For further information please email RESN@bradford.gov.uk

6-7pm: 'FUN BOY 3' – Join our animated panel for conversation and reminiscence from a Jamaican, Irishman and Pakistani about our experiences of education, employment and living in Bradford District. It will touch on personal experiences of racism, discrimination and building successful careers – it will be tinged with sadness and humour.

Click here to join the FUN BOY 3 meeting

Wednesday 9th February:

1.30 - 3pm: 'My journey through Race'

Webinar featuring a panel of BAME (Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic) professionals sharing their stories and the impact race has had on their life journeys. Join our speakers: Shak Rafiq - Strategic Communications and Engagement Lead for 'Act as One', Huma Nizami - Project Manager REN, Mushtaq Ahmed - IT Project Manager – Bradford Council, Nasser Hanif - Journalist-BBC, Charles Dacres – Director - Bradford Hate Crime Alliance, Furaha Mussanzi - Centre Manager for the Millside centre Bradford

Click here to join the My Journey through Race meeting

Thursday 10th February:

12.30-2pm: 'Parks to Pavilions'

Lord Kamlesh Patel - Chairman - Yorkshire County Cricket Club - Introducing the online screening of the documentary 'Park to Pavilions' about the Asian league cricket stories of players from Bradford, Leeds and Dewsbury. This will be followed by a Q&A with Lord Patel and 3 of the other cricketers featured in the documentary. Organised in partnership with YCCC and the AYA Foundation.

Click here to join the Parks to Pavilions meeting

Friday 11th February:

11-12.30pm: 'Race- holding the space in arts and culture'

Key note speaker Kevin Dalton-Johnson- Runnymede Trust will be discussing this notion and its importance through his work at the Runnymede Trust. He will be joined by 2/3 Bradford based arts/culture projects whose work is shaped by their race and cultural identity. This webinar is being organised in partnership with the LEAP – Bradford

Click here to join the Runnymede Trust meeting

4-6pm: Drop the mic' Open Mic poetry and spoken word

Hosted by Young people at the Mary Magdalene church project – on Race identity and belonging. This will be a face to face event that will also be streamed live. Kindly supported by Bradford 2025 and hosted by Sharat Hussain - Centre Manager - Mary Magdalene Church. For further details, please email Sharat on sharathussain@yahoo.com.

We wish to thank our partner organisations in supporting us to deliver
Race Equality Week 2022

